

Saba Adaptogens™

Saba Adaptogens™ is a proprietary and unique group of herbal ingredients used to improve the health of your adrenal system. The adrenal system is in charge of managing your body's hormonal response to stress. Saba Adaptogens™ helps strengthen the body's response to stress and enhances its ability to cope with anxiety and fight fatigue – slowly and gently, without jolts or crashes. It is called adaptogens because of its unique ability to “adapt” to the function according to your body's specific needs. *
